

At Ever May, we stand alongside individuals and families with calm, compassionate support through every step of their journey.

We provide gentle guidance when decisions feel overwhelming, ensuring you feel informed, supported, and never rushed.

Our care is personalised to your wishes, beliefs, and values, with dignity, respect, and presence at the heart of everything we do.

We offer support with funeral care, pre-planning, home-based end-of-life care, and compassionate guidance for those navigating voluntary assisted dying.

For package details, pricing, or to speak with our team, please visit our website or contact us directly.

evermay.com.au

03 4313 4124

connect@evermay.com.au

Pre Paid Funeral Care

For individuals and families who wish to plan ahead, bringing clarity, peace of mind and gentle structure to future arrangements.

We guide you to explore your options, complete documents and support your wishes, ensuring everything is recorded with care and your loved ones are gently supported when the time comes.

This offering includes:

- Guidance to explore and record your wishes
- Support to plan cremation or burial arrangements in advance
- Coordination with trusted cemetery providers
- Assistance with documentation and planning requirements
- Clear recording of decisions for family and executors
- Option to secure arrangements at today's pricing
- Ongoing review and updates as life changes

This is a thoughtful way to prepare ahead, ensuring your wishes are honoured and your family is supported with clarity and care when needed.

Adult Funeral Care

Please accept our heartfelt condolences & know we are holding you with care.

We stand with you as you navigate this time, gently offering compassionate guidance and informed support while you honour your loved one in the way that feels right.

EVER MAY
your community collective

Olive Offering

Family Led Farewells:

For families who wish to honour and say goodbye to their loved one in a way that feels meaningful, with our team by your side every step of the way.

We take care of the coordination, paperwork, and arrangements, allowing you the time and space to focus on what matters most.

This offering includes:

- Guidance and support to help you make informed decisions
- Gentle transfer of your loved one into our care
- Completion of all required documentation and administration
- Support with casket selection
- Coordination of cremation or burial arrangements with trusted providers
- Respectful body care, dressing, and preparation
- Family vigil time, memory-making opportunities, and keepsakes
- Transport to the final destination, with your family leading the way
- Return of ashes to your family, if required
- Ongoing communication and support, day and night

This offering is designed to give you the time, space, and support to honour your loved one in a way that feels right for you.

Faith Offering

Comprehensive Funeral Services:

For families who would like a meaningful funeral with our team by your side throughout the journey.

We take care of the coordination, paperwork, and arrangements, while supporting you to create a funeral that feels personal and reflects the life being honoured.

This offering includes:

- Guidance and support to help you make informed decisions
- Gentle transfer of your loved one into our care
- Completion of all required documentation and administration
- Support with casket selection
- Coordination of cremation or burial arrangements with trusted providers
- Gentle body care, dressing, and preparation
- Family vigil time, memory-making opportunities, and keepsakes
- Coordination of the funeral, including venue, flowers, celebrant or clergy, refreshments, and your chosen personal touches
- Return of ashes to your family, if required
- Ongoing communication and support, day and night

This offering provides comprehensive support, allowing you to create a meaningful farewell with compassionate guidance every step of the way.

Hope Offering

Gentle Cremation Care:

For families who would like a simple and respectful cremation arrangement.

We take care of the coordination, paperwork, and arrangements required, ensuring you are aware of the process at all times.

This offering includes:

- Guidance and support to help you make informed decisions
- Gentle transfer of your loved one into our care
- Completion of all required documentation and administration
- Support with casket selection
- Coordination of cremation arrangements with trusted providers
- Care and preparation prior to cremation
- Return of ashes to your family, or collection arranged at a time that feels right for you
- Ongoing communication and support, day and night

This offering allows a simple and respectful pathway, ensuring your loved one is cared for with dignity and respect always.

